“Royalty” is a retreat for 6-8 graders put on by South Rock Christian Church. Throughout God’s word, we read about a kingdom that cannot be shaken, a king that is worthy to be followed, and how we are sons and daughters of that king, which makes us royalty! We want students to be reminded of the truths of who they are and what God has planned for their lives.

The “Royalty” retreat will have short main sessions that consist of worship and one main thought for students to walk away with. There will also be times to debrief those thoughts in small groups. There will be organized games and free times to relax. Lunch on Friday, and a very small breakfast on Saturday, is included in the price. “Royalty” is held at the SRCC building.

On Friday afternoon, we will head up to Kansas City to watch the Royals take on the Angels. There will be one fast food dinner your child needs to bring money for. However, everything else is covered in the $25 cost. Students do need to bring a sleeping bag and pillow as we will come back to SRCC in the middle of the night and sleep on the floors until breakfast time.

We purchased 60 Royals tickets, so the sooner you register the sooner you are guaranteed your spot. We can probably order extra tickets, but those may not be next to the big group. So sign up quickly. And invite your friends! The deadline is March 26.
